HART

The great ancestor of the Hart family in the United States emigrated from London about 1690 and settled in Hanover County, Virginia, where he died leaving an only son, Thomas Hart, who was about eleven years of age when his father arrived in Virginia. Of the elder Thomas little is known except that he was a merchant and probably late in life, a blind man. (In the records of Mrs. Young, the great ancestor of the Hart family came from London, England, A. D. 1690 and settled in Virginia. She loses sight of the family from 1690-1755.)
